

IF WE FOLLOW LOVE

If we follow love and let it reign
Letting go and let love live forever
This could be a fairy tale dream comes true
This could be another heartbreak

But I'll... I'll take the chance
To be with you
I could be another fool in love
But I couldn't help loving you

If we follow love and be together
Braving storms in this funny weather
This could be a lonely struggle
This could be a lovely journey

So I'll... I'll take the step
To be with you
I could lose everything dear to me
But I... I couldn't stand losing you

And I... I want to hold you now
Take my hands and come with me
Tell me now if we could be together
Would you be my love forever?

I love you
I need you
Take my hands and come with me
In this love
In this life

LET'S BE IN LOVE

When I met you on the internet
I told God I'd make a bet
That I wouldn't fall, my mind is set
But babe, my heart just wouldn't let.

And so I seek out love's temptation
I'm overwhelmed by this emotion
You hold me captive in fascination Babe, you're the source of my obsession.

Lead me to your heart in raging passion

May our dreams melt as one in this fusion
Let us groan in hunger and in elation
I wanna please you to that height of sensation.

Making love to you is my ecstasy
Loving you, oh babe, is my destiny You're my heart's cry, you're my fantasy
Let's be in love... just you and me.

A RUBY IN MY SKY

Like a bird, she came Perching on my window sill
Saying hi to my heart

Like the summer, she stayed
Bringing laughter and warmth
She brightened up my life

Like the roses, she smiled
Living in the picture of love
She painted beauty in my soul

Like a moment, she's gone
Without a trace of goodbye
Leaving a ruby in my sky

And so seasons come and go
The past is never gone
The present never stay
The future might never come

IF

I wish there's something I could do
To take away my longing for you
But I'm so lost in love with you
I don't know what to do

You're the passion fruit ice cream
In my love cocktail
You add a little Bailey's cream
And make me go pale

I'm a little bit drunk with thoughts of you

There's nobody else that's right for me but you
If only reality isn't real and fairy tales are true
Babe, I wanna love you this life through

INTO MY LAND

I take your hand
Steal you away
To that magical land

There will our hearts dance free
There we escape into our fantasy
There we write our reality
In a realm where souls live
Where love and laughter inter weave
There we live like we still believe

I take your hand
Into my land
Into my dreams of dream

THIS BAG OF LOVE

I've got a heavy bag
It's filled with thoughts of you
I put it in my heart
And carry the love for you

I wish I could let go
This burden of wanting you
But I couldn't help and fall
Madly in love with you

This bag of love and hope
Takes me near to you
Everyday and every night
My body yearns for you

Would you be with me
If you have all of me
Should I set me free
Should I wait and see

MEMORY

Listen, memory
Forgive me 'cause I'm guilty
Happiness tells me to say sorry
And make you my history

Sorry, memory
I can't keep you and be happy
I wanna be set free
From you, life and its mystery

Hi there, mystery
Won't you tell me your story?
How does a man in his misery
See heaven and its harmony?

Tell me, memory
Does life give you autonomy
To catch me in my folly
And punish me slowly?

Leave me, memory
Your lust is tempting me
But your love is killing me
That's why you don't belong to my eternity

I see you, see you to your door (x2)
That's why I wanna see you, see you to your door...

LOVE IS MY NAME

When you were with me
You breathed in beauty
You laughed, you cried
You touched the sky

Creatures of twilight
Took you out of sight
There was a fight
Then silence at night

You woke up missing me
You tried forgetting me
Your heart's gone empty
You were cold and lonely

Love is my name

Seeking me you came You've never felt the same
Now you're burying the flame

When you are with me
You breathe in beauty
You laugh, you cry
You touch the sky

Once you're in my flame
It'll never be the same
Love is my name
Love is my name

RAIN

U told me that u luv me but u didn't
U told me that u'll wait me but u hadn't
And I found myself in the pit of darkness
searching for some light once again

U told me that u want me
it made my day
U told me that u'll stay
I believed every word u said
But I found myself living in your lies
I've nothing left
U took my sunshine away

Rain.. since u left
Rain.. falling down on me Rain.. Rain..
every nite and every day
in my heart

Rain.. in my heart..
Rain.....

I FUCK THE WRONG KIND

I fuck the wrong kind
There's no rewind
Screwed up my mind
Can't leave you behind

I fuck the wrong kind

I've been so blind
The tie that binds
Is loneliness I find

I fuck the wrong kind
If love is unkind
I really don't mind
Kissing my life behind

I fuck the wrong kind
Been around but blind
No love to bind
Only darkness to find

Help coz I fuck the wrong kind
Help coz there's no rewind
Help coz I screwed up my mind
Help coz I can't leave us behind

Asshole, asshole, asshole, asshole, asshole...

HOLLOW

Hollow eyes
Shallow hearts
Narrow minds
Callow lives

Scarecrow tears
Sallow love
Unhallowed lust
In borrowed time

When will there be no sorrow?
Where is there a new tomorrow?
Which life should I follow?
Who am I, my dear shadow?
I wish I was born to know

SURVIVOR

Sometime in forever
We lost each other
Distance took over
And now it's over

I miss you, my lover
Wish I could recover

What I remember
Of our lives together

Sometime in never
We found each other
In this happily ever after Life has been kinder

Drown in my anger
I seek for an answer
I had been bitter
Now love is my shelter

Keeping you in prayer
Wishing for the better
I'll be a survivor
In this crossover

I SHOULD BE WHAT LOVE IS

Waiting for morning to pick me up
I lay awake and missing you
The kisses, breakfast and your touch...

I didn't know then but now I do...

I should be love that loves you
Not anger that hurts you

I should be love that protects you
From what we're going through

I should be what love says I am
And say it when I can

I should be what love is
Because I love you

Please give me one more chance
To trust love to lead us through I'll be that changed man
Don't wanna lose you again

I should be what love is
Because I love you
I should be what love is Because I love you

LETTING GO

Sometimes only love knows the reason of the heart
Beneath those layers of truth
I cave in to wanting you
Yet I live to denying you
Drowning in this pretence
I can't fight it anymore

I see as far as the sea meets the sky
But the distance brings me close to
you

Till my heart reaches your door
Till I could see through your window
And feel your warmth inside me
Waiting for life to let it be

Sometimes only love knows the
reason of the heart
Beneath those layers of truth
I cave in to wanting you
Yet I live to denying you
Drowning in this pretence
I can't fight it anymore

I stand between letting go
Burying the me that knew you
And the memories that knew us

I stand between letting go
Holding on to your smile
Wishing for a future that never be

Sometimes only love knows the calling of the heart
In this loneliness of loving you
I fall between letting go
Those layers of tenderness
Crushing in on me
As I stand between letting go

Letting go... letting go... of you...

UNCLAIM ME

You found me
In my fantasy
You gave me
A love story

You own me
My heart, my body
You want me
But where are we?

Unclaim me
Let me be Lost at sea
Back to my fantasy

Back to not knowing you
Back to not loving you

Let us be Unclaim me
Forgive me
Forget me

HOPE

Oh reality
You're a prison to me
But my dreams
They set me free

Oh reality
You've captured my body
But you can't have
You can't have all of me

'Cause sometimes when I cry
My spirit learns to fly
High up to the sky
My spirit learns to fly

Above this reality
Across my destiny
Hope lives on in me

I AM

I am... I am... your secret fantasy
I am... I am... your dream lover

I am... I am... your soul mate
I am... I am... your kindred spirit

I am... I am... the joy in your life
I am... I am... the beating of your heart

I... I... I... am...

I wish I could be
All that I want to be
With you in reality... in reality...

I am... I am... the bird that watches you
I am... I am... the wind who sings to you

I am... I am... the snow that melts on you
I am... I am... a land in the blue

I am... I am... a distance beside you
I am... I am... a love you never knew

I am... a love you never knew...

I wish I could be
Where I want to be
With you in reality... in reality...

CURIOSITY

Curiosity...
Burns a hole
So I can see out to the world

Curiosity...
Gives me light

To look for my answer

Curiosity
Keeps me going
To where your love is

Deeper and deeper
Into my trouble

Maybe I want to... I want to know
So I could let go... let you go

TREES DON'T NEED NAMES

Trees don't need names
They watch our silly games
They hear our thoughts of shame
But who is to blame?

The birds, they get by
They don't need dreams to fly
They don't need to know why when you kill, you will die

Out in the blue
Time comes after you
The things that you do
They give us a clue

Inside, war is waging
But love is winning
One day we will find
We have all been blind

With our tears we sow your hatred with our plow
In time it grows into flames
Destroying our good names

YOU'RE MY ADDICTION

You're my addiction
I need your affection
Doomed by this attraction
My love is your possession

You're my obsession
I give in to temptation
I kiss you with passion
And wake up in confusion

I live in our fantasy
A land of you and me
Then comes reality
And you're not into me

Life is a parody
When love is agony
You're with somebody
Blame it on destiny

TRUE ANGEL

One fine day
You landed my way
You put your wings away
And decided to stay

Since that day
You showed me the way
You took my fear away
So my dreams could stay

Slowly everyday
In your gentle way
You wiped my tears away
I found the reason to stay

My angel in disguise
Strong and wise
Through your love and sacrifice
I see paradise

LOVING YOU

Needing you
I become vulnerable
Wanting you
I become unstoppable
Loving you
I become unreasonable

I become human
At this thought of holding you
In this fantasy of having you

In your arms
In your smile
In your touch
Lies the sanctuary of my love

Talk to me, Destiny
Tell me where I'll be
In this love story

MY VOICE

Band the moving sea
Land the enemy
Sand the way to the free

Oh, Tyranny
Watch me if I flee
I won't stand and see

There is more in me
To not let it be
I won't let it be!

BETWEEN YOU, ME AND LOVE

From your smile
Passed your hallway
Into your soul
I've come to know you

Till your name is just not a name
Till your smile becomes a flame
In my thoughts, in my heart
I've come to love you

Crazy but wonderful
Wild and beautiful
Between you, me and love
Could we dance through the night?

ALONE IN US

You say you love me
But it hurts
I feel so alone in what is us

You stole my heart
But now it's lost
I couldn't find my way back to us

Those memories of happy times
Those loving moments shared at night
I tried to stay by their light
I'm so tired and I have cried.

CHASING

All your life
You've been running and running
All your life
You've been chasing and chasing
Chasing the shadow of your dream

All your life
You've been searching and searching
All your life
You've been giving and giving
Giving away all your tears

But you keep on walking
And you keep on fighting
'Cause you know it
Deep down you know you'll be there

All your life
You've been running and running
All your life
You've been chasing and chasing
Chasing the shadow of your dream

All your life
You've been searching and searching
All your life
You've been giving and giving
Giving away all your fears

And you keep on walking
And you keep on fighting
'Cause you know it
Deep down you know you'll be there

I GOTTA RUN

I gotta run
I gotta hide
Coz if I don't
Love will catch me tonight

It's funny how
I used to wait
All night long
Then you came along

I gotta run
I gotta hide
Coz if I don't
Love will catch me tonight

Maybe it's your smile
When you walked into my life
You fill my heart with fire

I'm in danger of letting go
And if I do
I will fall

I gotta run
I gotta hide
Coz if I don't
Love will catch me tonight

I gotta run
I gotta hide
Coz if I don't
I will fall... fall for you

Fall... fall for you

A NEW ME

I dig deep into my pockets
And feel hungry
I keep polishing my cover letters
Till they're shiny

Life has got to be bigger than this
But I still worry
Give me a new way
To find a new me

Let me hitch my way home
Where I'm safe and free
Give me a new way
To find a new me

Wish God gave me a pen
To write my own story
I don't know why I go through this Just to be me

Between fake and reality
Who's there to love me?
I had it with angry and sorry
I want to break free

Life is destiny's mess
So I'm not sorry
Free the past from me
Cause I'm ready

Let me hitch my way home
Where I'm safe and free
Give me a new way
To find a new me

Let me hitch my way home
Where I'm safe and free
Give me a new way
To find a new me
(x2)

I WILL FOLLOW WHERE MY PRAYERS GO

When the song is over
Who do you turn to?
Where do you go?

In the stillness of silence
Find your voice
Listen and sing again

Where my dream is
There lies my hope
With all my heart
I will follow
Where my prayers go

(x 2)

Where my prayers go
I will follow
Where my prayers go

LOVE

It was interjected
And accepted
So I picked it up

Little by little
Falling on my path
In this journey of my life

You called to me
You stirred me up
You are... You are... LOVE

You won me over
You lifted me up
With your JOY

You were constructed
And perfected
I try to live you out

Little by little
Falling on my path
In this journey of my life

You protected me
You kept me safe
In your GOODNESS

You won me over
You lifted me up
You are... You are... LOVE

You are... You are... LOVE
You are... You are... LOVE

You won me over
I try to live you out
In this journey of my life

You are... You are... LOVE

GONE

One day sooner I'll be gone
I'll be like when I was born
What do I really own?
A life of love that I have grown

Standing at my last mile
I fear, I grieve for a while
Will I be greeted by a smile?
Life is strange and fragile

There'll come a time to let go
I'm rich, I'm poor, is there more?
Have I lived the person I'm here for?
The clock is ticking and that's for sure

One day sooner I'll be gone
I'll leave nothing but my bone
The tears, the joy that I've sown
Those are really what I own

There'll come a time to let go
I'm rich, I'm poor, is there more?
Have I lived the person I'm here for?
The clock is ticking and that's for sure...

LOVE GETS IT WRONG

Papparapapa papparapapa
Papparapapa papparapapa

You're into her
I'm into you
Love gets it wrong
This can't go on

You can't have her
I can't have you
Just take my heart
I'm feeling blue

Love makes me cry
It makes me fly
I'm going crazy

Papparapapa papparapapa
Papparapapa papparapapa

Please take my heart
Give it to her
Let her feel the love I do

Sail, sail away
In this love
With everything I wish we had

Papparapapa papparapapa
Papparapapa papparapapa

So let me go, love

Let me go
So let me go, love
Let me go

You're into her
I'm into you
Love gets it wrong
This can't go on

You can't have her
I can't have you
Just take my heart
I'm feeling blue

So let me go, love
Let me go
So let me go, love
Let me go

HUMAN

You are wanting
To be wanted
You are seeking
To be found
You are running
To be free
To be home
To be loved

You are forgiving
To be forgiven
You are crying
To be happy
You are listening
To be heard
To be yourself
To be love

To God we cry
To death we live
To life we dance
This is our destiny

You are writing
To be written
You are saving
To be saved
You are dying
To be alive
To be human
To be free

To be love
To be alive
To be free
To be loved

You are wanting
To be wanted
You are seeking
To be found
You are running
To be free
To be home
To be loved

You are forgiving
To be forgiven
You are crying
To be happy
You are listening
To be heard
To be yourself
To be love

To be love
To be alive
To be free

I COULD ONLY KNOW

I could never know
The truth in your eyes
The secret of your heart
Within your gentle hug

I could never know
What the future holds
If we could risk it all
As the fire grows

I could only know
What I could only hope
I could only know
I couldn't let you go

I could never know
If our search is over
If we've found each other
As I gaze into your eyes

I could only know
My wish for tomorrow
I could only know
I couldn't let you go

I could never know
The truth in your eyes
The secret of your heart
Within your gentle hug

I could never know
What the future holds
If we could risk it all
As the fire grows

I could only know
My wish for tomorrow
I could only know
I couldn't let you go

I LOVE YOU

You have a light that glows
Into my heart it flows
Like wild fire it grows

Touch me, you'll know
A longing I want to show
A love I wish to follow

You touched the sorrow
Melted the snow
You took me out of my shadow

My sunshine and rainbow
I wish you could know
My feelings, desire and more

Listen to the sparrow
Whispering from tomorrow
Love will shine through the window

You have a light that glows
Into my heart it flows
Like wild fire it grows

Touch me, you'll know
A longing I want to show
A love I wish to follow

Listen to the sparrow
Whispering from tomorrow
Love will shine through the window

Love will shine through the window

PUT LOVE ON THE LINE

Your touch thunders down my spine
Your smile lingers in my mind
There's a riot in my heart
And it's burning through my soul

I hold your hands
I kiss your lips
I'm tortured by this love
Gonna put it on the line

Gonna put love on the line
Give it a try
Who knows?
We might make it through this life

When I think of you
I say my prayers
Wishing you the best
In all that you do

Gonna put love on the line
Give it a try
Who knows?
We might make it through this life
Who knows?
We might make it through this life
Who knows?
We might make it through this life

JUST YOU

Life has many stories,
Of love and fantasies.
Between reality,
You found me.

I'm yours, can't you see?
My taker.
Untether,
Just let it be.

I want you crazily,
My seeker.
Surrender,
Your passion to me.

Mmm...

Love has many names,
But you steal all the flames.
Life hasn't been the same,
Since you came.

Kiss me passionately,
My beholder.
Together,
May we be.

I love you deeply,
My lover.
Forever,
That's what you mean to me

Life has many stories,
Of love and fantasies.
Between reality,
You found me.

I love you deeply,
My lover.
Forever,
That's what you mean to me

AFTER YOU

After you
I'm lost
Love died
But life goes on

After you
There's frost
The fire stopped
I can't go on

After love
It's still you
Nobody comes close
Cause everything lingers

Everything lingers
When it comes to you
The light in your eyes
The magic in your touch

If I could have Just one thing
It would be
To be with you

MAY LOVE GROW IN THE GARDEN OF YOUR HEART

In the garden
Of your heart
Let love grow
Through the snow

Find a way
To fly away
Like the sparrow
Above your shadow

Open the window
Believe in tomorrow
This life you borrow
May it glow
Through tears and sorrow
May it follow
The love you grow
Through the snow

May joy follow
The love you sow
In lives you know
As time will show

In the garden
Of your heart
May love grow
Through the snow

In the garden
Of your heart
May love grow

Find a way
To fly away
Like the sparrow

Open the window
Believe in tomorrow
This life you borrow
May it glow
Through tears and sorrow
May it follow
The love you grow
Through the snow

In the garden
Of your heart
May love grow
Through the snow

In the garden
Of your heart
May love grow

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

My song I sing to you
Happy Mother's Day
Mummy, I love you
Blessed be your day

Good memories we share
Of things we did together
You were always there
To help me shine brighter

No matter what you bear
You always hide your tears
All my strives and fears
You always hold me dear

I'm the best that I can be Because you love me
You've always fought for me
All these years, unselfishly

Your wrinkles remind me
To tell you I remember
My smocking dress, my fever
Your guidance and your story

Blessed be your day
My song I sing to you
Happy Mother's Day
Mummy, I love you
